

Kevin Norwood New Released - Beloved Nature

Published 1 week ago on November 15, 2021

By Natalie Patrick

Kevin Norwood New Released – Beloved Nature

The Franco-British singer Kevin Norwood has returned with a new album « Hope ». The magic happens!

In 2013, he recorded his first album "Reborn" : Released in January 2015, the disc obtained reward from the press "Révélation Jazz Mag", "Découverte Jazz News" and additionally made the the front web page of "Open Jazz" through Alex Duthil, "La Matinale Culturelle" (France Musique) and Xavier Prévost (Jazz Magazine).

The file used to be noticed by means of David Linx who signed the liners notes and acquired the aid of Jonathan Duclos Arkilovitch of the Victoires du Jazz.

In 2016, Kevin Norwood developed his task in search of an electro-acoustic color: he calls on Rémi Ploton, each for his features as a pianist and for his style for sound creation.

The identical year, the Kevin Norwood Quartet reached the last tiers of the Jazz Migration tour, Crest Jazz Vocal as nicely as the countrywide opposition "La Défense Jazz Festival".

Then the band went into an creative residency at the Petit Duc at the cease of 2018 for the introduction of a new repertoire, which we have the pleasure to hear is now refereed to as the album "Hope".

This year October 8, 2021 he launched "Beloved Nature" A voice that takes its time helped by way of the warmth of a singular tone. The band sounds like one, becoming a member of the breath and the power of understanding a play that serves a songwriting sublimated by way of an stimulated interpretation.

"The nature that we see is stunning for those who see it so that we may additionally appreciate it inside ourselves." It is actual that the world is critically discussing local climate change which will be of advantages to everyone.